

How-To Peel

Instructions

Superwrap is easy to peel off when applied with the recommended thickness (10+ wet coats).

Simply work an edge until the coat begins to lift, then slowly work your way around the wheel or accessory. Superwrap will come off in large pieces when properly applied.

If needed, you can also use a power washer to remove the small pieces that could be remaining on the surface.